Dear Parents and Carers,

As part of our commitment to delivering a comprehensive education, I wish to inform you that our school will be observing Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) week from 19th May 2025. This initiative is designed to provide pupils with age-appropriate knowledge and understanding of various aspects of relationships and personal well-being.

During RSE week, your child will engage in lessons that cover a wide range of topics, including emotional well-being, understanding consent, and developing respectful relationships. It is paramount that our pupils learn these vital skills in a supportive and informative environment.

We understand that the subject of Relationships and Sex Education can invoke varied feelings. It is natural for parents and carers to have questions or concerns regarding the content being delivered. Should you wish to discuss what your child will be taught, or if you have any specific worries, please do not hesitate to reach out to the school. Your thoughts and insights are invaluable in collaborating for the benefit of your child's education.

Furthermore, we encourage you to take an active role in this process by engaging in discussions with your child about what they are learning during this time. Open communication will help reinforce the messages shared in class and ensure that they are understood in the comfort of your family context.

Thank you for your ongoing support and partnership as we work together to empower our pupils with the knowledge they need to navigate their relationships and understand their bodies in a safe and respectful manner.

Yours sincerely

Clare Palin
